Interviewer: What would your friends say about you?

Leeza: They would say that I'm kinda, not crazy, but like kind of fun, but in a crazy way. Energetic, very nice, generous, and a good friend. Stuff like that, nice things, they won't say nothing bad about me.

Interviewer: What kind of family would you like?

Leeza: An energetic family, people that like to go places, not one that stays in the house all day, but like go out to eat, or go out to the movies, to the beach. Like stuff to do like have fun not to be lazy.

Interviewer: How about brothers or sisters?

Leeza: I would like to have a little brother or sister, because I'm the baby of the family. So I want to see how it feels to have a little brother or a little sister.

Interviewer: So you want to have someone to boss around?

Leeza: No! (Smiles)

Interviewer: No?

Leeza: Just someone I can talk to and play with.
